

- Information to help, e.g. RMCH A for Autism website
- Listen & making your healthcare experience better
- Training & Learning development

B

S

Autism Act 2009 / Think Autism 2016 Department of Health / Equality Act 2010

For further information contact Frances Binns & Anna Ostmeier-Brill

RMCHRALMP@mft.nhs.uk www.RMCH A for Autism

RMCH

Moving from Children's Healthcare Services to Adults

Transition support for patients with Autism or Learning Disabilities

Tell us if your child is aged 11-12 years Reasonable adjustments can be made to meet your individual needs Assess what is needed Next steps can be discussed Support to help start the journey is available Information gathered via traffic light Taking the right amount of time needed for you nforming others

LECONT ADDRESS IN A ADDRESS INTA ADDRESS IN A ADDRESS IN A ADDRESS INTA ADDRESS INTA ADDRESS IN	ient name	Plospital No	Cinician	Palient name Hospital No Clinician
Part Part Headbill Experiments Image: Instrument Image:	Important points	in he Aware of an Admission or A	exchanged :	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
Company <t< td=""><td>Dalkas High Diselly</td><td>•</td><td></td><td>Past Hospital Experiences</td></t<>	Dalkas High Diselly	•		Past Hospital Experiences
Image: strature Image: str
Altered of disclose Watery Converses				$ ••• ·
				æ
	Mediam Priority	:		•
				:

Opportunities to help work together with others

Notify your doctor, nurse, nurse specialist etc

For further information contact Frances Binns & Anna Ostmeier-Brill RMCHRALMP@mft.nhs.uk

Autism Act 2009 / Think Autism 2016 Department of Health

NICE Guidelines for Transition from children's to adults' services for young people using health or social care services

Transforming Care: our stories. Learning from families' experiences to transform care for people on the autism spectrum, with a learning disability or both. The National Autistic Society